Keep DeKalb Beautiful to Host Martin Luther King Jr. Day Family Community Cleanup

DECATUR, Ga. – Keep DeKalb Beautiful (KDB) and the city of Lithonia will host the Second Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Day Family Community Cleanup. This event will be held Monday, Jan. 19 from 10 a.m.-noon. Volunteers will converge at Lithonia City Hall, 6920 Main Street, Lithonia, GA 30058.

“DeKalb County is proud to honor the legacy of Dr. King with this annual event,” said DeKalb County Interim CEO Lee May. “I encourage everyone to come out and participate for a day of fun and service to enrich the community.”

Community service certification will be available for qualifying residents participating in this event.

“Dr. King was a man who believed in service for the betterment of others,” said Lithonia Mayor Deborah Jackson. “I believe it is fitting to honor Dr. King’s sacrifice and legacy in a way that continues service to others.”
