Keep DeKalb Beautiful Hosts Electronics and Shoe Recycling Event in Recognition of Lithonia Cities Week

DECATUR, Ga. – Keep DeKalb Beautiful (KDB), a unit of the DeKalb County Sanitation Division, in collaboration with the city of Lithonia, will host an Electronics & Shoe Recycling event on Saturday, April 18, 2015 from 9 a.m.-noon. The event will be held at the Lithonia Plaza parking lot, 2636 Max Cleland Blvd., Lithonia, GA 30058.

The event kicks off Lithonia Cities Week, an extension of Georgia Cities Week. Event participants will have the opportunity to recycle used electronics, including computers, cell phones, televisions, and other household appliances. Projection, plasma and wooden console televisions will be accepted for a $20 recycling fee, Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) televisions for a $10 recycling fee, and Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) monitors for a $5 recycling fee. All other electronics will be recycled at no charge.

In addition, participants can donate gently used shoes for recycling and repurposing. Recycling services for the event will be provided by Curbside Recycling, LLC.

Lithonia Cities Week runs from April 18-25, during which residents will participate in an electronics recycling event, a health fair, talent show, and open house, among other activities. The week's theme is "Destination Downtown."

For more information on this event or how to plan a beautification project with KDB, contact KDB at 404-371-2654 or kdb@dekalbcountyga.gov, or visit www.keepdekalbbeautiful.org.
