MEDIA CONTACT
Emily Schwarz, Public Information Officer
P: 404-371-2809 | M: 404-599-6881

Pauline A. Andrea, Public Information Officer
P: 404-294-2092 | M: 404-971-2892

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 30, 2015

Keep DeKalb Beautiful Hosts Sensitive Document Shredding and Shoe Collection Event

DECATUR, Ga. – Keep DeKalb Beautiful (KDB), a unit of the DeKalb County Sanitation Division, in partnership with Berean Christian Church, will host a free Sensitive Document Shredding and Shoe Collection event on Saturday, May 16, 2015 from 9 a.m.-noon. The event will be held at the Berean Christian Church parking lot, 2201 Young Road, Stone Mountain, GA 30088.

Event participation is free and open to residents of DeKalb County. Participants will have an opportunity to dispose of sensitive documents, such as old tax records and legal documents. All documents will be shredded on-site, and each participant will be limited to five standard-sized boxes of documents for shredding purposes. Shredding services for the event will be provided by Shred-it North Atlanta.

Participants will also have an opportunity to donate gently used shoes for recycling and repurposing. All shoes, with the exception of ski or winter boots, slippers and rubber flip-flops will be accepted.

For more information on this event or how to plan a beautification project with KDB, contact KDB at 404-371-2654 or kdb@dekalbcountyga.gov, or visit www.keepdekalbbeautiful.org.

DeKalb County is Georgia's third largest county with more than 700,000 residents calling it home. Known for its business and education hub, growing international community and natural wonders, DeKalb County Government is administered by Interim Chief Executive Officer Lee May and legislative policy is set by a seven-member Board of Commissioners.

Stay informed with news from DeKalb County by signing up at www.onedekalb.com or send a text message with the word ONEDEKALB to 22828 (message and data rates may apply).

###