Keep DeKalb Beautiful Hosts Electronics Recycling, Paper Shredding and Shoe Collection Event

DECATUR, Ga. – Keep DeKalb Beautiful (KDB), a unit of the DeKalb County Sanitation Division, will host an electronics recycling, paper shredding and shoe collection event on Saturday, July 25, from 9 a.m.-noon. The event will be held at the Northlake Mall parking lot, 4800 Briarcliff Road, Atlanta, GA 30345.

Event participation is free and open to DeKalb County residents. Participants will have an opportunity to recycle used electronics, including computers, cell phones, televisions and other household appliances. Projection, plasma and wooden console televisions will be accepted for a $20 recycling fee, Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) televisions for a $10 recycling fee, and Cathode Ray Tube (CRT) monitors for a $5 recycling fee. All other electronics may be recycled at no charge.

Attendees will also have an opportunity to participate in a paper shredding and shoe collection event. Participants can donate gently used shoes for recycling and repurposing. All shoes, with the exception of ski or winter boots, slippers and rubber flip-flops, will be accepted.
