Because the May 19 election was a partisan primary, voters will be able to vote in the runoff election of the party whose ballot they selected for the primary. Voters who did not vote in the May 19 primary may still participate in the runoff and may select either party’s ballot.

Election Day for the runoff election is Tuesday, June 16, 2026. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Voters are encouraged to confirm their voter registration status, review sample ballots, verify polling locations and make a voting plan before Election Day. Absentee voters should also monitor ballot request and return deadlines to ensure timely participation in the runoff election.
