

Executive Order No 2026-7

OPENING MICHELLE OBAMA PARK

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 13(a) of DeKalb County, Georgia's Organizational Act, the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") has exclusive power to supervise, direct and control the administration of DeKalb County's government; and

WHEREAS, the Governing Authority of DeKalb County renamed Intrinchment Creek Park, Michelle Obama Park and adopted a Park Master Plan for the park; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 2023-001 instituted the closure of the following properties owned by DeKalb County, Georgia in the vicinity of Michelle Obama Park, including the former Intrinchment Creek Park, ("the Properties") totaling approximately 140 acres:

- 1) 2109 Bouldercrest Road (parcel id. no. 15 083 01 018);
- 2) 2055 Bouldercrest Road (parcel id. no. 15 083 01 003);
- 3) 2156 Bouldercrest Road (parcel id. no. 15 084 01 004);
- 4) 2142 Bouldercrest Road (parcel id. no. 15 084 01 220);
- 5) 2058 Bouldercrest Road (parcel id. no. 15 083 02 002); and
- 6) 2098 Bouldercrest Road (parcel id. no. 15 083 02 003).

WHEREAS, Executive Order No. 2023-001 provided that this closure was deemed necessary until further notice due to known and unknown conditions of the Properties that posed a potential danger to the public, the neighboring community and their children and pets who may access the Properties; and

WHEREAS, the closure of the Properties is no longer deemed necessary at this time.

NOW THEREFORE, the Chief Executive Officer hereby issues the following Executive Order:

The closure of the Properties via Executive Order No. 2023-001 is ended effective immediately.

That this Order shall be effective upon signature and remain in effect until further notice.

SO ORDERED this 4th day of September, 2026.

Lorraine Cochran-Johnson
Chief Executive Officer
DeKalb County, Georgia
