DeKalb VRE to Host Series of Voter Information Town Halls Ahead of November General Election, Oct. 7 - 21

DECATUR, GA — DeKalb County Voter Registration and Elections (DeKalb VRE) will host a series of voter information town halls in October to help residents prepare for the Nov. 3 General Election.

The Know Before You Vote Education Series will give residents an opportunity to get clear, reliable information about the voting process. Topics will include checking registration status, early voting and Election Day, voting absentee by mail, voter identification requirements, accessibility resources, verifying official election information, finding polling locations and preparing for a potential runoff election. All meetings begin at 5:30 p.m.

“Voting with confidence starts with having clear, reliable information,” said DeKalb VRE Executive Director Keisha L. Smith. “Through these series of town halls happening across the county, DeKalb voters can become more prepared to participate in the November election and any potential runoff.”
